GENERAL AMERICAN INVESTORS ANNOUNCES QUARTERLY DIVIDEND ON PREFERRED STOCK

On Nov. 1, 2000, the Board of Directors of General American Investors Company declared on its 7.20% tax-advantaged cumulative preferred stock a dividend of $0.45 per share payable in cash on Dec. 26, 2000 to holders of record on Dec. 6, 2000. This quarterly distribution represents a payment for the accrual period from Sep. 23, 2000 through Dec. 22, 2000. Preferred shareholders will be informed in early 2001 of the portions of the distribution which represent long-term capital gains and ordinary income.

General American (symbol GAM), a closed-end investment company founded in 1927, has been publicly traded since its inception and has been listed on the NYSE since 1930. The objective of the Company is long-term capital appreciation through investment in companies with above average growth potential. General American has total net assets of approximately $1.3 billion, $1.15 billion of which is applicable to its 26 million shares of common stock outstanding. The Company's capital structure includes $150 million of preferred stock.
